In order to make the occasion one of enjoyment as well as profit in some form or other, the manage-ment are endeavoring to secure a number of new and novel attractions that will both instruct and the Society.

1. The President will wear a red rosette.
The Vice-President will wear a blue rosette.
The Secretary and Treasurer will wear a pink osette.

The Chairman of Executive Committee will wear a red, white and blue rosette.

The superintendents of the sevhral departments will wear vellow rosettes.

2. The President, with the aid of the Vice-President, the Chairman of the Executive Committee and Secretary, will have the supervision and direction of the Fair, including the sale of booths and privileges.

3. The superintendents of departments will receive and arrange the articles in their respective departments with reference to the best display of the same.

They will attend with the Committees on awards when going round passing upon articles in their departments, giving the Committees all needful information which they have previously obtained from exhibitors.

exhibitors.

They will act as Chairmen of the Committee of Judges, but will hing of premiums. , but will have no vote or voice in the award-

4. After the Committees have finished their examinations and made their decisions, the superintendents, respectively, will cause to be made out a clear and full report of their awards and have the Committee to sign the same, and the superintendents will deliver said reports to the Secretary not later than 10 A. M. on Friday, October 24th. They will then attach a blue ribbon to the articles receiving premiums, and a red ribbon to the next in competition.

When the Fair is ended, all articles not called for by exhibitors shall be properly cared for by the superintendents of departments or turned over to

Rules to be Observed and Enforced by

1. Exhibitors must be excluded during the deliberations of the Judges.

If there is no competition, the Judges are not obliged to award the premium unless there is de-cided merit.

President.

Started the Calhoun Roller Mills last week and are now turning out 75 barrels per day of "The Belle of the Flatwoods," a flour as good as ever tempted the paiste of the most delicate appelite. We believe that we have as good and un-to-date mill as there is in the State. After buying a compelte line of the floest machinery made we have spared no expense in butting it in, and the result is we have a mill second to none.

We respectfully invite the public to come and inspect our Mill, give us a trial, we guarantee perfect satisfaction.

Yours respectfully.
